

Annual Report 2008

30 years

*fighting hunger
and feeding hope in our community*

In 1978, some caring people started a small food clearing house, gathering bread from a nearby Safeway store and redistributing it to one agency, Little Sisters of the Poor. Who would have guessed thirty years later, those loaves of bread would turn into nearly 25 million pounds of food, distributed to over 700 agencies. In the last thirty years, many things have changed, but hunger continues to remain an issue for so many of our neighbors.

The faces of those who struggle might surprise you. Many who receive food through our partner agencies are the working poor. Our last hunger study revealed over half of those seeking assistance had at least one adult working full time in the household.

Children make up nearly half of our food recipients. Without proper nutrition, their physical, social and mental development suffers. Seniors on low fixed incomes often must choose between medicine, heat or food, a daunting decision no one should face.

It's those faces that keep us fighting. Those faces remind us our mission is crucial. Together, we do make a difference. We make a difference for Garret who knows dinner will be there because he's headed to a Kids Cafe tonight. We make a difference for Eleanor who receives a tote bag filled with enough food; she can eat and take her cancer medication. We make a difference for Karen, a struggling mom who won't need to skip dinner tonight so her children can eat, thanks to food from a local pantry.

With your help we make a difference for so many. Over the last thirty years, we've received support from generous individuals, businesses and foundations. We are fortunate to again fill these pages with some of the names of those who've helped us this year. There are many more of you holding food drives, attending events, dropping money in donation cans, volunteering a few hours - and even though we can't recognize everyone who helped by name in this report, please know you are valued. Without the help of all of you, we couldn't do what we do.

In this report, we've featured some long-time donors who, over the years, have found unique ways to contribute to our mission. We thank them for their dedication, and look forward to furthering our mission with them, with you and with new faces.

While we'd like to see a future where no one in the Rocky Mountains struggles with hunger, we know that probably won't happen. As long as we have neighbors in need, we will be here, working with our partner agencies, our donors and our volunteers to fight hunger and feed hope.

Thank you for helping us make a difference these past 30 years. We appreciate the generosity of our wonderful Rocky Mountain community.

Our Mission:

We will end hunger by efficiently procuring and distributing food and essentials to people in need through our partner agencies in Northern Colorado and Wyoming.

The Food Bank relocates to Le Mouton, a former sheep barn in the stockyards. A government grant increases staff to a director, two part-time employees and two Vista volunteers.

The Food Bank moves to 47th & Joliet. We begin reclamation off-site and rely on volunteers to inspect, sanitize and sort items for distribution.

.....

In 2008, we distributed nearly 25 million pounds of nutritious food.

$1 donation = 4 meals

$1 donation = over 5 pounds of food

24,742,152 pounds = 19,032,424 total meals = 52,576 meals per day

THANK YOU...

HELEN K. AND ARTHUR E. JOHNSON
FOUNDATION

The Helen K. & Arthur E. Johnson Foundation gave its first gift of $10,000 to FBR in 1990. To date, the foundation has donated over $700,000 to help us feed those who are less fortunate. They are truly good friends to FBR. Barbara Hartley, the Foundation's former Chair, was our first honoree at the Heart of Gold Ball, a tribute dinner dance in 1995.

The foundation has always been available for counsel and advice, as well as funding and good will. It has been our pleasure to be associated with them for the last 18 years. Their contributions have made a tremendous difference in the lives of so many and we look forward to working together as long as hunger remains an issue in our community.

FBR takes part in the first nation-wide Hunger Study. "Hunger 1997: the Faces and Facts" shatters stereotypes. We learn more than half of families receiving help work, and children make up almost 50% of those who receive our food.

THANK YOU...

Food Bank of the Rockies was fortunate to be introduced to Mark Beatty, the original owner of Fineline™, in 1995. We had a new 18 wheeler and a tiny budget. Mark assisted us with our truck graphics at a deep discount. As Mark learned more about Food Bank of the Rockies and our mission, he offered to assist us with our additional trucks, signs and banners, all as Gifts in Kind. Mark also served on our Board of Directors for several years.

When Mark left the company for the beaches and palm trees of Florida, he assured us that V Gaines and Fineline™ would continue to help us as their charity of choice. And that certainly continues to be the case. Our representative, Scott Shreeve generously provides us with the large graphics we require and responds to our needs as if we were a full paying customer. He also serves on our Development Committee.

Because Gifts in Kind were not accurately recorded in the computers in earlier times, we cannot say the exact dollar amount we've received from Fineline™ over the years. We do know that just since 2005, Fineline™ has donated over $80,000 in graphics and services. And the value these products bring through corporate recognition at events, on the highway and in our warehouse is immeasurable. When you see our newly wrapped trucks rolling down the highway, our banners hanging at an event, or our beautiful new donor wall and warehouse signage, know we are grateful to Fineline™, Mark, V and Scott for their hard work and generous spirits.

THANK YOU...

In 1998, ReactionWeb.com, a fledgling web design and development company, entered the market. Two partners, Michael Mockus and Paul Dynan had one client and a vision. When they heard Food Bank of the Rockies needed a website, even though Paul and Michael had limited time and resources, they decided to help.

"Making sure everyone has enough to eat is non-political; it's a basic necessity," says Michael. They knew helping FBR get on the World Wide Web would truly make a difference. By donating their services, more people would eat.

The new website was a big success and exactly what the growing food bank needed. ReactionWeb.com grew too. And as they gained more insights, they shared them with FBR. On-line donation forms were added to the site. Later, marketing email and content management systems helped FBR reach more people and update their site quickly.

Over the course of 10 years, ReactionWeb.com has donated thousands of hours, designed three versions of the website, which have provided millions of site visits and informed old friends and new supporters across the Rockies.

Their generosity has helped Food Bank of the Rockies bring in hundreds of thousands in on-line donations, turning into countless meals for those in need in our community.

Our heartfelt thanks go out to this generous company for their many years helping us fight hunger and feed hope.

THANK YOU...

King Soopers has been assisting Food Bank of the Rockies with food and fund donations since the late 1980's. Originally, we picked up food donations from their refrigerated warehouse docks and the donations increased year after year. In 2004 alone, King Soopers donated 1 million pounds of fresh from the fields produce, much to the delight of our 700 agencies. In 2004, FBR piloted a Retail Store Donation Program with King's at four stores; today, we pick up donations at 30 King Soopers and five City Market locations. King's executives have also provided operational expertise to us over the years.

King Soopers not only donates food, but also provides generous cash gifts to our food bank. They've helped to promote awareness and raise needed funds by hosting several in-store promotions over the years. Our heartfelt thanks go out to King Soopers for everything they've done over the last 20 years to help us fight hunger and feed hope in Denver and throughout the Rocky Mountains.

THANK YOU...

Food Bank of the Rockies got its start with the help of a local Safeway store in 1978. Volunteers went to the store in a station wagon and picked up bread to deliver to Little Sisters of the Poor, our first agency. At that time, we were called The Colorado Food Clearing House and we operated out of a one-room school house. In the 30 years since, we've been distributing Safeway's food to local hunger relief programs. They back haul their donations to their main warehouse where we pick up dairy products, bread, beverages, frozen food, ice cream and salvaged goods. Tens of millions of pounds of nutritious food has reached the tables of our neighbors in need, thanks to Safeway's generosity.

In addition to food donations, Safeway donated our very first pallet racks over 25 years ago, and recently donated two 50 foot trailers. They are available for advice and have provided expertise on running our distribution program. We are grateful to Safeway for their steady contribution to our mission over the past 30 years!

A donation of eggs from local producers comes just in time for Easter.

THANK YOU...

John Strohm and Mary Pat Link are committed to giving back to a variety of community organizations. We are fortunate John and Mary Pat are major donors and friends to the Food Bank of the Rockies. Since 1991, John and Mary Pat have stepped up to help us with our mission by contributing challenge grants, sponsoring nearly every event or promotion we've held, introducing additional donors to the food bank and showing exemplary leadership in the fight against hunger.

John has volunteered on our board for the past 11 years and was the first to recommend FBR offer an endowment fund. John started the fund with a challenge grant and was a founding member on the Endowment Committee; he still serves on the committee today. John and Mary Pat, through Interlink Group, Inc., were the first title sponsors of the Joe Sakic Celebrity Golf Classic.

Through John and Mary Pat's personal contributions, as well as their efforts to engage others in our cause, millions of meals have been distributed. We are truly grateful for their contributions, their service and their dedication to our organization. We have accomplished much because of their support and we look forward to achieving even more together in the years to come.
